Prem Rawat in Hiroshima

Only through individuals practicing peace in their daily lives can we lay a lasting foundation for global peace.

Special guests:

Dr. Masato Honma
Vice President of the Kyoto University of Art and Design

Hideki Yabuhara
founder of the Wamon Foundation

October 13th 2018
1:30pm to 4:30pm
(reception open from 12:30)

International Conference Center
Hiroshima
1-5 Nakajimacho, Naka Ward, Hiroshima, Hiroshima Prefecture 730-0811
Tel: 082-242-7777  http://wwwpcf.city.hiroshima.jp/icch/english.html

Attendance:
10,000 Yen for adults
3,000 Yen for students (please bring your student identification)
‘Real peace resides in the heart of every living human being. Each one of us needs to recognise it, to know it, to feel it’.
—— Prem Rawat

From a young age Prem Rawat has been sharing his unique perspective on peace around the world, at the age of 60 he continues to travel extensively, now in his 52nd year since he began his historic work as an ambassador of peace. Prem spoke in Hiroshima in 1973 on his first visit to Japan and now 45 years later he will return to take part in Bunya publications international seminar on establishing global peace through individual peace.

Hideki Yabuhara author of Wamon the art of deep listening and founder of the Wamon foundation will MC the event. Having already MC’d for Prem in Tokyo in 2015 and Fukushima and Tokyo in 2016 Prem and Hideki share a strong mutual understanding and a deep desire to help guide humanity towards a more harmonious world. Special guest Dr. Masato Honma is the founder and CEO of Learnology Co. Ltd. and has trained thousands of executives and managers throughout Japan and Asia. In 2016 as Vice President of the Kyoto University of Art and Design Dr. Honma hosted and facilitated an event with Prem.

Bunya-za events bring together the Author, the publishing team and the readers in a unique environment where learning and understanding flourish.

It is our great pleasure to invite guests from overseas and we will be providing full simultaneous translation into English for this event.

Event contents:
Part one: Prem Rawat’s keynote speech
Part two: Prem Rawat and Dr. Masato Honma and Hideki Yabuhara in discussion and taking questions from the audience.

Attendance:
10,000 Yen for adults
3,000 Yen for students
(please bring your student identification)

Seating will not be allocated although there will be a reserved section for media and special guests.

To reserve a seat please click on the link below:
https://t.livepocket.jp/e/e_ew4

We will send you a QR code via email, bring this to the event either on your mobile phone or tablet or print it out on paper so you can show it at the reception as you enter the hall.

Bunya publishing will not be sending any tickets for the event for attendees from outside of Japan.
Reservations cannot be refunded once made, but you can share your ticket with someone else if you are unable to go.